

Philip Bogdanoff

Philip Bogdanoff began working in the Summit County Prosecutor's Office in 1979 and became an assistant prosecutor in 1981 after passing the Ohio Bar. He worked for Prosecutor Lynn Slaby, currently an Ohio Public Utility Commissioner and Prosecutor Maureen O'Connor, currently Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court. In 2002 he was honored as the Summit County Prosecutor employee of the year. Mr. Bogdanoff argued 20 cases before the Ohio Supreme Court including six death penalty cases. He acted as a police legal advisor to numerous law enforcement agencies reviewing search warrants and providing legal advice on search and seizure. After 30 years of public service, in 2007 he retired from the Summit County Prosecutor's Office as a senior assistant prosecutor while working for Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh. He is licensed to practice law in Ohio and various federal courts. He is a frequent presenter of continuing legal education on various topics including ethics and professionalism. He has taught at numerous seminars sponsored by the Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys Association and West Virginia Prosecutors Institute. He is the author of two articles featured in Ohio Lawyer magazine, including one article on attorney ethics. For additional information, please visit www.philipbogdanoff.com.